

CLAIM:

I claim as my invention:

1. A necklace/recipe card combination which is comprised of a food pendant adorned necklace accompanied by a recipe which is printed on a card which is attached to the necklace and whose main ingredient is that same food item(s) which is symbolized by the main adornment(s) of the necklace.
2. The necklace/recipe card combination described in claim 1, whereby the supporting adornments of said necklace represent said recipe by way of color and/or theme and/or abstract symbolic nature.
3. The necklace/recipe card combination described in claim 2, whereby said necklace has the title "Fruits of Love" and whose recipe card contains a recipe for Latin Love Caramel over Strawberries and Mangoes. The main adornments of said necklace being two glass strawberry charms, two glass mango charms, and one glass heart pendant. The supporting adornments of said necklace being caramel colored glass beads.
4. The necklace/recipe card combination described in claim 2, whereby said necklace has the title "Chiles on the Fire" and whose recipe card contains a recipe for Chile Coconut Curry. The main adornments of said necklace being six glass chile charms and one glass pendant with an abstract design representative of fire. The supporting adornments of said necklace being gold tinted glass beads with black spots which represent the char marks that occur when one cooks chiles on a fire.

5. The necklace/recipe card combination described in claim 2, whereby said necklace has the title "The Elegance of Eggplant" and whose recipe card contains a recipe for Eggplant Pecan Caviar. The main adornments of said necklace being five glass eggplant charms. The supporting adornments of said necklace being purple and black shimmery glass beads which represent the elegance of said eggplant charms and said recipe.

6. The necklace/recipe card combination described in claim 2, whereby said necklace has the title "Aaah Tree Ripe Bananas" and whose recipe card contains a recipe for Banana Salsa. The main adornments of said necklace being three glass banana charms and four glass banana leaf charms. The supporting adornments of said necklace being green tinted glass beads which represent the summer season.

7. The necklace/recipe card combination described in claim 2, whereby said necklace has the title "Pears in the Autumn Sun" and whose recipe card contains a recipe for Grilled Pear Watercress Salad. The main adornments of said necklace being four autumn colored glass pear charms. The supporting adornments of said necklace being brown and rust colored glass beads and one autumn colored pewter sun charm which represent the autumn season.

Numerous additions, variations, modifications and substitutions of elements may be brought to this invention without altering either its spirit or its object, nor leaving its scope of protection, as shown by the appended claims.
